Read your letter to Louis. I hope you did get the card Ernest selected and mailed. He thought it quite pretty. Sorry we didn't have a gift there with the other ones to show your friends. I guess it did make you feel a little neglected. It just couldn't be helped. I will remember Fred this week. Mailed you a letter last Wed. Lovingly [MS. illegible] someday I will find just the gift, that will attract everyones attention, and you tell your friends, that is a belated gift for the anniversary.
