

The Liberty Memorial at Night, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 1]

52:-The Liberty Memorial at Night, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 2]

We will be seeing you in a few days. Bon will tell you about this picture. We will see Harry at 11 o'clock this A.M. This will be my last card.

Mother

[caption]

Overlooking the Union Station from a commanding site on Memorial Hill stands Kansas City's war memorial built by popular subscription at a cost of approximately two and one-half million dollars. The corner stone was laid in 1921 in the presence of General Pershing and the military leaders of the various Allied nations. In 1926 the completed structure was dedicated by President Coolidge. It was designed by Harold Van Buren Magonigle.

[end caption]

Virginia Kathryn Way
Wahoo, Nebraska